

NATS DROP LAST GAME TO YANKS-BROOKLYN PRACTICALLY CINCINNATI-INDIANS AND WHITE SOX WIN

Yanks Drop Last Game To Yanks-Brooklyn Practically Cincinnati-Indians and White Sox Win

New York, Sept. 26.—The New York Yankees evened it up with the Nationals by winning today's game to the tune of 9 to 5. Nick Altrock was the main attraction at the Polo Grounds and about 27,000 baseball enthusiasts turned out to see him perform. It seems that nobody is interested in Babe Ruth or the Yankee team any more, as New York cannot possibly win the pennant, and the Polo Grounders are just playing out their schedule in accordance with the rules of the American League. Nick did himself proud today and his antics will be remembered by all who were present.

Nick Put Out of Game.
Before the game, the Senator coach marched around with the band and after the Yankees had practically won the game, Nick tried his best to get the umpire's goat and succeeded so well that he was put out of the game in the eighth inning.

Outside of Altrock, the only other interesting features of the game were two home runs by Aaron Ward, the New York third baseman. Ward seems to be out after the Babe's record and as he hit one home run on Saturday, he now has made three circuit clouts in two days. Bambino, by the way, had to be content with a double.

Zachary and Quinn were the opposing pitchers at the start of the game and Quinn had the Senators' pitcher. He allowed two home runs and hits and would have let down the Griffins with two runs but he eased up in the final stanza and Washington managed to bring its total up to five.

Yanks Draw First Blood.
New York drew first blood in the very first inning. Ward singled to right and Pipp advanced him to second with a one-bagger to left. Both runners advanced a peg on Ruth's infield out. Pratt then lifted a fly to Johnson and Zachary gave one of the weirdest displays of bone-headedness seen here lately. For no apparent reason he attempted to intercept the throw and muffed it, both Ward and Pipp scored.

The Senators tied it up in the fourth. Rice singled through the box as an opener, then Shanks brought him home with a home run to right field. Vick could have had a double to a single, or at most a double, but he tried to trap the ball and it eluded his grasp, rolling by for an official four-base blow.

The Yankees went into the lead in the next round and were never headed. With one out, Hannah sacrificed to center and Quinn sacrificed. Ward then hit first home run of the day, sending Hannah across before him. Pipp singled to center and Ruth walked, but Pratt ended the inning by flying to Shanks.

Game Won in Sixth.
The Yankees won the game by a 9 to 5 score in the sixth inning on five hits which accounted for four runs. Hannah sacrificed to center and Ruth walked, but Pratt ended the inning by flying to Shanks.

At this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

That this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

At this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

That this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

At this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

That this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

At this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

That this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

At this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

That this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

At this time all the interest of the game centered in the interest of Nick Altrock, and this gentleman so persistently annoyed the umpire that he was asked to leave the premises in the eighth. After New York had scored an entire inning, a single and Ward brought in the three other runs with his second home run of the day.

ROBBERS CAN'T LOSE RAG NOW

Victory Over Giants Means That Tie Is Worst Fate Could Bring Them.

New York, Sept. 26.—In a stubbornly contested game with the New York Giants at Ebbets Field this afternoon the Brooklyn Dodgers practically clinched the National League pennant by winning 4 to 2. Provided the Giants win all their remaining games and the Brooklyn lose their four games next week the worst that Robb's men can do is to tie for the lead.

Rube Marquard, famous twirler of the New York champions of 1911, 1912 and 1913 is doing a little gloating of his own tonight, being the main cause of settling the hash of the team that a couple of years ago thought he had seen his day and cast him off.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

Freddie Toney, who McGraw selected to oppose the "Rube" was hit so hard in the first two innings that "Shuffling" Phil Douglas was sent in to replace him. Phil held the Dodgers hitless for five innings, but with two out and three men on base the much abused Ivy Olson hit a low liner to right. Young almost made a spectacular shoe-string catch. He caught the ball but lost it as he rolled over on the ground and two men scored with the runs that beat New York and shattered their chances for the pennant.

WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND

By BRIGGS

Copyright H. T. Tullman Inc.

Laurel Ready for Most Successful Race Meet

Laurel, Md., Sept. 26.—Laurel Park, Maryland, is now put as to its buildings, its infield, its spread of rich green velvet, its flower beds gay with color, awaits the opening of Friday of the October racing season at the Maryland State Fair Corporation. The impending meeting will begin on the 1st and continue through the 31st. There will be twenty-six racing days all told. It will be marked by the distribution among horsemen of a matter of $250,000, of which upward of $217,000 will be added money, and the running of imported stakes in the country. For the first time in the history of the Maryland State Fair, the Maryland State Fair Corporation will participate. Situated midway between Baltimore and Washington, the great metropolitan boulevard and the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, Laurel Park boasts of an environment for autumn racing unapproached anywhere in the country. The best of the surrounding shrubbery and trees and a riot of gold and purple has resulted. The course is in splendid condition, thanks to the painstaking attention of its superintendent. It is faster than it ever was before, and perfectly safe.

Already some 200 thoroughbreds are sheltered in the Laurel Park enclosure and there will be a big influx of new horses this week from New York, Saratoga and Canada. Probably 50 per cent of the horses of quality that are shown in New York after the finish of the Belmont Park meeting will be here before the first week of the October racing season. The best of the lot that are filling the races from day to day at Havre de Grace were safely stayed before the end of last week.

Order of Laurel Races.
The order of the running of the Laurel Park fixtures will be: National six furlongs, for 2-year-olds, $5,000 added, October 2; Capital handicap, six furlongs, for 3-year-olds and over, $5,000 added, October 6; Annapolis handicap, one mile and a half, for 3-year-olds and over, $10,000 added, October 9; Chevy Chase steeplechase, about two miles, for 3-year-olds and over, $5,000 added, October 12; Ticket of the month, for 3-year-olds and over, $5,000 added, October 15; Steeplechase, about two miles, for 3-year-olds and over, $5,000 added, October 18; Patuxent steeplechase, about two miles, for 3-year-olds and over, $5,000 added, October 20; The Laurel, one mile, for all ages, $10,000 added, October 23; Manor handicap, one mile, for 2-year-olds, $5,000 added, October 30.

Important stakes of the Laurel Park and National meetings—the Latonia meetings, also, will take up the entire month of October—have been so arranged that the distance running horses that take part in the Annapolis handicap may have ample time in which to get to Kentucky for the Latonia Cup, also, that the 2-year-olds that start in the Maryland handicap may get west in time to start in the Latonia championship.

Instead of being rival attractions these great Kentucky and Maryland races will this fall complement each other. Nearly all the horses named for the Maryland handicap are in the Latonia Championship. The best of the prospective starters in the Annapolis handicap are in the Latonia Cup.

With the best distance racing that will have been witnessed all season and a brilliant revival of steeplechasing the Maryland State Fair will feature some especially attractive 2-year-old racing. Racing folk are as much in the dark this year in the last week of September as to the quality and relative merits of the smart 2-year-olds as they generally are in the middle of June. The champion of 1920 is yet to be picked. Probably the juvenile star will find his proper place in the running of one of the Laurel Park 2-year-old fixtures, if not in the Laurel stakes, which have been raised in value to $10,000. The Laurel will be a great mile sprint for the best horses of all ages.

DISTRICT TOURNEY WINDS UP TODAY
The finals in the mixed doubles between Col. Waite Johnson and Miss Merrywill Wakeford and Capt. Al Gore and Miss Louise Kelly, the last match in the District tournament being staged on the Dumbarton Club courts, will take place this afternoon, starting at 4:30. This is the final championship to be decided. Maj. Arthur Yencken, the Australian crack, having won the singles title and Capt. Albert Gore, teamed with Yencken, the doubles honor. Miss Merrywill Wakeford became the new District singles champion and Miss Louise Kelly, teamed with Yencken, won the women's doubles championship.

Rolands Have Practice.
Over thirty candidates were put through a tough scrimmage by Coach Baldwin of the Rolands Athletic Club, yesterday afternoon on the Monument Grounds. The Rolands will meet again tomorrow afternoon at First Street and Maryland avenue, northeast at 5 o'clock.

Eastern Meets Tonight.
The Eastern Athletic Club will hold its weekly meeting at 423 Fifteenth street southeast tonight at 7:30. All members are requested to be present.

MAJOR LEAGUE STATISTICS

AMERICAN LEAGUE.					NATIONAL LEAGUE.
1919					1919
W	L	Pct	W	Pct	Fin.	W	L	Pct	W	Pct	Pos.	Fin.
Cleveland	53	34	.608	83	50	2	Brooklyn	59	60	60	70	497	5
New York	46	52	.469	74	59	3	St. Louis	57	64	58	83	613	2
Philadelphia	45	53	.455	72	57	4	Cincinnati	57	64	58	83	613	2
Washington	43	55	.438	70	55	5	Pittsburgh	57	71	45	70	511	4
Chicago	42	56	.429	68	53	6	St. Louis	54	76	42	74	64	596	3
Boston	40	58	.408	66	51	7	St. Paul	53	78	40	83	535	7
St. Louis	39	59	.398	78	60	8	Philadelphia	50	86	40	56	82	40	6
Cleveland	47	100	320	36	101	266	4	St. Louis	50	89	39	47	87	361	8

GAMES TODAY.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.		NATIONAL LEAGUE.
Washington at New York.	Pittsburgh at Cincinnati.	St. Louis at Chicago.	St. Paul at San Francisco.
New York at Philadelphia.
Detroit at Chicago.
Cleveland at St. Louis.

Indians Retain Lead, Defeat Browns While Chicago Trims Tigers

St. Louis, Sept. 26.—Displaying a genuine pennant punch, the Indians retained their hold on first place by defeating the Browns today by a score of 7 to 5. After Speaker's men had opened with three runs against Wellman, the Browns came right back in their half of the first, making it necessary for the visitors to fight an uphill battle from the start. Uble hurried well until the eighth, after relieving Caldwell, but was relieved by Coveleski at the finish.

It looked like a runaway in the first when the Indians gathered in three runs. Evans walked and Wamby singled. Speaker drew a pass and Burns forced Evans at the plate on a grounder to Austin. Gardner fouled to Seaver, but a walk to Wood scored Wamby and Seaver dribbled a stinging single over second counting Speaker and Burns.

Uble went to the hill and hit Austin. Seaver fanned and Lamb, batting for Wellman, singled to left, scoring Tobin with the fifth run of the inning.

Uble led the Browns for then on until the eighth, when he lost control. With one out Seaver was hit and Billings walked. Coveleski relieved Uble and Gerber popped to O'Neill while Gedeon grounded to Johnston.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.

The Indians passed the Browns in the third. With one out Smith singled and beat DeBerry's throw to second on Gardner's tap. Johnston batted for Wood and walked, filling the bases. Seaver scored two with a double to right. Johnston was caught at the plate on O'Neill's grounder and Uble scored Sewell with a single to center. In the seventh Johnston drove in Gardner with a triple.